DIVISION MEMORANDUM
DM-2021 062

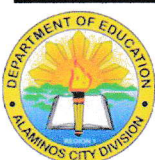

TO : Heads, Public Elementary and Secondary Schools
FROM : Schools Division Superintendent
SUBJECT : “eKonek” City Library Online Resources and Story Telling Activities
DATE : March 04, 2021

PARTICULARS

1. The City Library through the office of the OIC City Librarian, madam Virgie E. Aquino, RL, in commemoration of the 62nd Public Library Day, which is on March 9, 2021 with the theme “Philippine Public Libraries: Providers of Virtual Information and Contributors to a Sustainable Community” the Alaminos City Library will be launching a program entitled “eKonek” City Library Online Resources. Its objectives are to provide electronic and online resources, such as thesis, magazines and library collections, for students and researches in order to enhance educational development and to provide educational resources for effective learning, teaching and research activities.
2. Likewise, on March 28, 2021, the City Library will feature in their Facebook Page one of the legends of our famous Hundred Islands. The Story is entitled “Si Prinsesa Ligliao at ang Alamat ng Sandaang Pulo” translated to filipino by Mrs. Ma Fe B. Nogoy, a native Alaminian and a nurse by profession. Lifted from Emmanuel S. Sison’s book – Tales from the Land of Salt- the featured story is a glimpse into the history and the rich folklore of Pangasinan. Giving life to the “Alamat” is none other than our very own, Kathie Lee Barco, Miss Tourism International Philippines 2020-2021, whose story telling skills will surely delight the audience.
3. Attached is the communication coming from the OIC City Library Head, Mrs. Virgie E. Aquino. For your information and guidance.
4. For appropriate action.
