Artkipelago was formed to allow learners and interested individuals to explore their creativity by learning from experts, movers and shakers, and pioneers across the different creative industries. It was launched in January 2022 which features practical classes where mentors will teach based on their real-life experiences while sharing invaluable tools and insights not found in books.

Artkipelago's vision is to bolster the Philippine creative economy, thus, opportunities must be made available to any aspiring artist/creative person regardless of their location or financial means. Artkipelago believes that in cooperation with DepEd, young people will be able to discover and hone their creative gifts and see them as paths to embark on a professional career.

Interested teachers and learners may enroll on their preferred courses through the website <https://www.artkipelago.com/>.

Attached is the copy of the list of online courses they are offering.
